Numb. 1311

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 10. to Thursday June 13. 1678.

Lyme, June 8.

THis morning arrived here the John, and the Elizabeth of this place, in three dayes from Leghorn, and brought over several English Merchants, who left that place, having now but little to do there.

Portsmouth, June 9. On the 6th instant arrived in Cowes Road a Hamburgh Man of War of 28 Guns, called the St. Francis, Capt. Peter Nimman Commander, with a Merchantman called the Ann of Hamburg, of 18 Guns, Matthias Middleman Master, bound for Portugal.

Deale, June 9. This morning arrived in the Downs the William, the Constant Merchant, and the Recovery, from Virginia; they bring not any News: as also the Theodore, the Europe, and the Batchelor, from the Straights. Three ships more are now coming in, likewise, as is believed, from Virginia.

Vienna, June 5. The Emperor will return hither from Luxemburg the 8th instant, and in the mean time several Conferences are held there, for the taking the Resolutions necessary, as well in relation to the Affairs of Hungary, as those which regard the War, in which his Imperial Majesty is at present engaged. The Emperor has granted the Hungarians several Points they demanded, and especially that about choosing a Palatine, which will be done at the next Assembly of the States of that Kingdom. The Marriage between the Archdutchess Anne, and the Prince of Neuburg, is certainly concluded, and will be consummated, when the Duke and Dutchess arrive. Two dayes since arrived here an Envoy from the Elector of Brandenburgh, and hath had Audience of the Emperor, to whom he represented several matters relating to the present Conjuncture.

Copenhagen, June 11. Yesterday the King was on Board the Fleet. Admiral Juels returned with his Majesty hither, to receive his last Orders. The Fleet designed for the Baltick under his Command, consists in 52 Sail, as well Men of War, as Fireships and Tenders, and have, as we are told, on Board them 12000 Men, as well Seamen as Soldiers. The Squadron designed Westward, and as some believe to block up Gottenburg, consists in 26 Sail, and have on Board 2000 Men. They will sail so soon as the wind serves. From Norway we have Advice, That the Sieur Guldenlieu hath possessed himself of the Island Hiesslingen, and the Fort that was there, the Suedes had, they say, 2000 Men on the said Island, who quitted it, but in their retreat lost about 100 Men, the Danes took there six pieces of Cannon, and at present attack the Fort of Babus. The Forces pass daily over into Schonen, but we know not yet when the King will go over in person. We have another report, that the Suedes have made an Assault upon Christianstadt, and that they have been repulsed, which however we give no credit to.

Hamburgh, June 14. We have already given you an account, that the Munster Troops, who were going to the assistance of the King of Denmark, had passed the Elbe, and were marching towards Kiel, from whence they would be carried over to Schonen; since we are informed that 1800 Men, belonging to the Landtgrave of Hesse, are marching the same way, to overtake and join with them. It is said that the Suedes, upon the approach of some Brandenburgh and Lunenburgh Troops, have quitted Damgarten. By a Vessel arrived in 11 or 12 dayes from Gottenburg, we have Advice, that the Danes, being 18000 strong, under the Command of General Dunkam, have besieged the strong Fortress of Babus; and that Gottenburg was blocked up by four Danish Men of War. The Deputies of the City of Dantzick, have obtained of the Elector of Brandenburg, the liberty of Dr. Strauch. We are told that the Suedish Fleet is at Sea.

From the Imperial Camp near Hochberg, June 9. Several Regiments of Foot which we expected, having joined us yesterday at Rugel, we marched from thence to Emendingen, and are now encamped within half a League of the Enemy, who are very advantageously encamped on a Hill near Langendentzling: And our Camp reaches from the great way of Hockberg to the River Elz, the Guards of the two Armies stand in sight of each other. We have been joined here by the Troops who were posted for the security of the passages which lead to Suabia.

Strasburgh, June 10. The Imperial and French Armies are encamped so near each other, that it will be hard for them to part without some Action. The Duke of Lorrain has sent the unnecessary Baggage, and the Women, which followed the Army, to Offembourg, seeming resolved to make use of the first occasion, which may bring them to a Battel. The Boats designed for the making a Bridge over the Rhine at Rheinau, are sent down hither.

Mentz, June 12. The three Regiments of the Elector of Saxony continue encamped on the Saour, in the Baillage of Wasserbillich; and the Imperial Regiment of the Count d'Arch, has received a command to remain at Trier, till farther Order. It is said here, that the Mareschal de Schomberg will advance with the Troops under his Command to the Moselle.

From the Mareschal de Crequi's Camp at Langendentzlingen, June 13. The Imperial Army is encamped within half a League of us, and our Parties have frequent skirmishes. They were all the last night drawn up in Battalia, we know not what their design is, but the Prisoners we take tell us, that they want Forage, which they are forced to go four miles to seek. We have defeated a Convoy, which was going to them from Strasburgh.

Cologne, June 14. The Bishop of Paderborne, according to what was agreed here by the Ministers of the Allies, has sent his Quota of Troops, and on Saturday last they lodged in the Territory belonging to the Abby of Essen, in order to their passing the Rhine at Koerort. The other Princes will likewise send their Quota's, for the forming an Army to secure their Territories scituate between the Rhine and the Meuse. The Mareschal de Schomberg has summoned